

MSC CRUISES' ELEVENTH SHIP RESUMES PASSENGER OPERATIONS

- MSC Divina departed new homeport of Port Canaveral/Orlando, Florida for 3-night sailing
- Vessel joins MSC Meraviglia for sailings in the Caribbean Sea and The Bahamas, including the Company's private island, Ocean Cay MSC Reserve
  - Sailings continue in the Mediterranean Sea, Baltic Sea and Red Sea

Geneva, Switzerland, 17 September 2021 – MSC Cruises' eleventh ship has resumed passenger operations with MSC Divina setting sail for a 3-night cruise from her new homeport of Port Canaveral/Orlando in the USA to Nassau and the Company's private island destination, Ocean Cay MSC Marine Reserve in The Bahamas.

The ship joins MSC Meraviglia in the US state of Florida where she sails from Miami to The Bahamas, Ocean Cay, Cayman Islands, Jamaica and Mexico, and US-based guests now have the choice of 3-, 4- and 7-night itineraries from the two embarkation ports.

Six MSC Cruises' ships are currently sailing in the Mediterranean – MSC Seashore, MSC Grandiosa, MSC Seaside, MSC Orchestra, MSC Splendida and MSC Magnifica - with MSC Virtuosa set to join them on 22 September to offer 9-night cruises from Genoa with calls at Malaga, Cadiz, Lisbon, Barcelona and Marseille.

MSC Seaview is sailing in the Baltic Sea from Kiel in Germany with cruises to Sweden and Estonia, and MSC Bellissima is operating in the Red Sea from Jeddah, Saudi Arabia to Egypt and Jordan.

ENDS